HATTER

They've come back . . . the boys who went to the Solomons and New Guinea . . . to Anzio and the Philippines. They've put aside the olive drab . . . the navy blues . . . the shiny buttons. Now only the lapel button distinguishes the sports jacket of the serviceman turned student from that of the fellows just out of high school. They become a part of the whole . . . they add their maturity, their ambitions, their experiences to the Stetson that has been made by those who stayed at home; and the returning soldier, sailor, or marine is one with the bobby-soxer, the campus co-ed, and the boy just out of high school.

Stetson Goes Forward

Never before has this phrase been spoken with more truth than in the school year 1946-47. Everything has happened from sipping tea with Dr. Allen in Chaudoin Parlor to coming home with a sore throat from the football games. The long-sought soda shop has at last become a reality and it is crowded from dawn to dark. Being in the center of the campus it has become the gathering place, and a person just doesn't get around if he doesn't go there at least once a day. Class rooms are crowded and turning away students; and who can wonder with an enrollment of 1,800? There are many wonderful things over which to reminisce, so just turn the pages and see for yourself.

Year's High Lights

Gee, but we've had fun this year. We're all convinced that Stetson is just the best place ever. The social calendar has been full with forum lectures, holiday parties, Little Theatre productions, frat parties and even Sadie Hawkins Day. Everything undertaken by Stetson students has been a success, and that comes from having fun in everything we do. We've tried to gather all this together in the 1947 HATTER, hoping to bring you memories of one of the best college years of your life.

CHRIS and BOB

Classes are out and Joe and Josephine College are off for an afternoon of fun and extracurricular activities. The Stetson Reporter is going to press and the HATTER staff members are worrying about getting the annual out on time. Laughter and shouts can be heard from the tennis courts, while in Chaudoin Hall the Woman's Council is trying to decide whether four minutes late should be one or two nights campusment. All over the campus, clubs are meeting and elections being held. These are the things that give Stetson students that well-rounded education.

In appreciation of his profound understanding of us, the students, in all the phases of our campus life; in gratitude for his insight into our needs as students, thereby making us think for ourselves; we, the staff . . .

Dedicate the 1947 Hatter to . . .

Hugh W. McEniry, Jr.

The patient, long-suffering folks who guide, encourage, and scold us; who laugh with us; and who have our heartfelt gratitude . . . THE ADMINISTRATION.

MINISTRATION

The President's Message

The session 1946-47 has been outstanding in a number of ways. The enrollment for the academic year totaled more than 1,800. Eight hundred of these were veterans. The new Stetson Hall has been completed and now houses 168 young women. The College of Law reopened in September with an excellent faculty and 64 students. The Campus Soda Shop was opened November 15. The greatest Homecoming in the history of the Institution was held on November 16. More than 2,000 alumni returned to the campus. Intercollegiate athletics were resumed. The Million Dollar Campaign made marked progress. More than $300,000 in cash has been received and in addition more than $300,000 has been pledged. Students and faculty are giving their best to making Stetson finer in scholarship, finer in culture, and finer in the development of Christian character. Thus Stetson continues to go forward.

I am happy to extend greetings and best wishes to the Stetson family everywhere.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM SIMS ALLEN, President

Almost there . . . really feeling their wings . . . now that things are under control, and they feel secure in their chances of graduation, they take over . . . men and women of the campus . . . they know their way around . . . busy in organizations . . . taking a last fling . . . they remember days when as freshmen the war was on, and things were pretty calm here . . . not enough men . . . few activities . . . but look at them now!

Sophomores

Feeling so superior . . . two years down and two to go . . . content with the world like cats after a full meal . . . they look down on the rats, but they still feel a little respect toward the mighty Senior . . . this is the life; no cares . . . no worries except those of exams, classes, Sophomore tests, and restricted areas . . . not too young to reminisce about their Freshman year when there were only 600 students!

Bill Reese received the high honor at Stetson of being chosen the Homecoming Mayor, and we must say he certainly did us justice. Bill is also outstanding as president of his fraternity.

Gerry Knight will long be remembered as our gracious and cordial Homecoming Hostess. Gerry came to Stetson as a Junior, but she attained the popularity and standing on campus that most students fail to attain in four years.

Kay Hooper was soloist this year for the Stetson symphony orchestra. After attending Stetson for two years, Kay went to Juilliard in New York for one year and transferred back to Stetson to receive her degree. Kay will be remembered for her beautiful voice.

Archie McMillan has won his claim to fame in outstanding work in the music school. Archie has worked untiringly in the music school and is known to everyone for his ready smile and greeting.

Bob Henry is known to all students as the man that wields the gavel at student body meetings. Before his entrance into service Bob made a record for himself at Stetson and since his return he has added much to it.

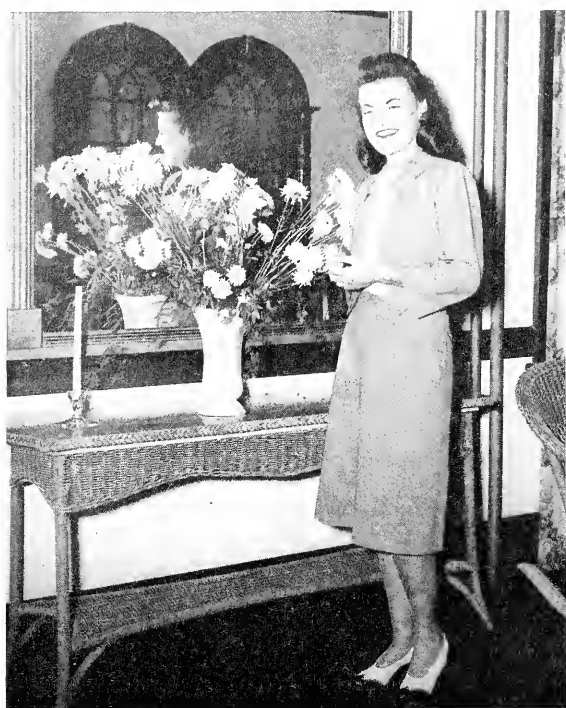

Chris Magaha is best known in the field of student publications. She is past editor-in-chief of the Stetson Reporter and editor of the 1947 HATTER.

Jewel Garrett was the student's choice for social vice-president and she certainly did do a swell job. Jewel will also be remembered for her good work on the Woman's Council, and we mustn't forget Rat Court.

Bryan Brasington seemed to make a hit at Stetson from the time he arrived. He first came into the spotlight by being chosen president of the Freshman Class. When football season started, that number fifty-two caught the eyes of all the spectators and the talk of the day was, "Breezy's done it again."

Much can be said of the activities of Marjorie Merrill, but we feel you know her as well as we do. Marjorie was editor-in-chief of the 1946 HATTER. Among other outstanding honors, Marjorie was chosen to be in Who's Who while only a Junior, and you know the rest.

Jack Causier is another that once left Stetson and has returned again. Jack was very popular at Stetson before leaving; one of the honors he attained being membership in the Mystic Krewe. Now that he is back, among other things he is a very outstanding leader in his fraternity.

The Little Theatre

The dramatic department of the university is on its toes. On the average of once a month, a play is presented in the Stover Little Theater. The plays chosen are frequently Broadway hits, and the students really do them justice. If you want to see a gang hard at work, then drop by the Little Theater some evening and watch rehearsals.

More goes on back stage than you would think. For each play a new set must be built and painted, properties must be found, and the lighting effects must be worked out. The busiest place in the theater before a show is the make-up table. Here boys and girls are transformed to everything from an old person to a ghost. It is fascinating to watch a play develop from a mere manuscript to the final production.

Any student in Stetson can take part in the Little Theater; it is not restricted to speech students only. Dr. Irving C. Stover, the director, is always searching for new talent. So, it is on with the show!

The Music School

The white building on the corner that actually seems to burst forth with music all through the day and into the hours of the night is none other than the . . . Music School.

The Music School has gone forward with Stetson and now has a very good reputation throughout the state.

Officers of the Music School are Betty Sue Barker, president; Louise Dearston, vice-president; Jean Geiger, secretary; Ahna Grantham, treasurer.

Clubs . . . publications . . . forum speakers . . . student body elections . . . frat parties . . . all go toward giving the Stetson student that well-rounded education.

Stetson University Glee Club

The Stetson University Glee Club has become one of the outstanding organizations on campus. In past years it has averaged some 50 performances during the school year. It has traveled from Miami to Pensacola. The war, of course, interrupted the schedule, but now it is getting back into motion, and hopes to resume the full schedule before long. Performances here at home include Homecoming, the Christmas Candlelight Service, The Messiah, an operetta, a spring concert and commencement. Then various appearances in surrounding communities and throughout the state are made. This year the club was composed of 130 voices, being divided into two squads: 80 in "A" Squad and 50 in the "B" group. The very capable directors are Miss Ruth M. Richardson and Harold M. Giffin.

PHILIP KNOWLES
Editor

The purpose of the Stetson Reporter is to tell the Stetson students what is being done, felt and thought on the campus and in the world outside. Its second purpose is to provide for the staff training and experience in conducting a newspaper.

Finally the Reporter wishes to express its desire to help the students of Stetson. It is their paper. With the cooperation of both the faculty and the students during the years, it is hoped that the Reporter will be able to do much toward fostering and developing a greater school spirit and building a Stetson of which we may all be proud.

The Hatter

The HATTER staff has tried conscientiously to publish an annual that will bring back to you the gayer minutes at Stetson. If we have accomplished this we feel our work has not been in vain.

The staff has had a lot of fun regardless of the headaches. We've tried to think up new ideas to please you and have prayed for sunshine when all the reports said rain. There's been laughter over beginners' mistakes and begging for copy to be in on time with that inevitable deadline lurking in the near future. But if you like the 1947 HATTER, we're happy.

The publication was headed by Chris Magaha, editor-in-chief, and Bob Clark, business manager. Lucy Effinger and Eleanor Dooley served as associate editors, while Joan Miller and Nan Poppell had their share of the worries with organizations.

The Physical Education and Recreation Department for Women

Embodying the spirit of health, sportsmanship and fellowship, the Women's Physical Education and Recreation Department provides for the physical and social development of young women. Its purpose is to develop that one thing upon which nearly all other aspects of life are dependent—a strong and efficient body. This aim is carried out by participation of students in the following activities: tennis, badminton, archery, fencing, golf, swimming, basketball, volley ball, softball, speedball, tumbling, modern dance, folk dance, square dance, corrective gymnastics and all recreational sports. Besides participation in activity classes there is also an extensive intramural program for all students in the University.

Mrs. Sara Staff Jernigan is director of the Women's Physical Education and Recreation Departments. Other members of the staff include the following: Miss Betty Autrey, Miss Esther Hick, Miss Mary Lippitt, Miss Pauline Bennett and Mrs. Margaret Maggenheim. Student assistants are: Sarah Lett, Louise Beyers, and Kenneth Purtz.

Intramural Managers

Physical Education Majors and Minors

The Physical Education majors and minors are Louise Adler, Beulah Atkinson, Juanita Beauchamp, Lou Beyers, Wayne Blackburn, Nora Bradley, Joyce Caldwell, Ann Cory, Betty Council, Stella Davis, Suzanne Davis, Nan Franklin, Miriam Glover, Mary Haskins, Sarah Ann Lett, Pat Maxey, Betty Miller, B. J. McCollum, Blanche McClellan, Verdelle Sebring, Roselyn Seckinger, Betty Sheridan, Donnalee Steckel, Helen Trundle, Nita Turner.

Active Sports

The diversity of girls' athletic life is clearly visible. If they aren't playing William Tell, they're "building better fencers", and when that gets boring, there's always rhythms class.

The various sports that make physical education fun instead of work . . . the Women's Athletic Department has advanced by leaps and bounds and can now offer any type of recreation called for at Stetson.

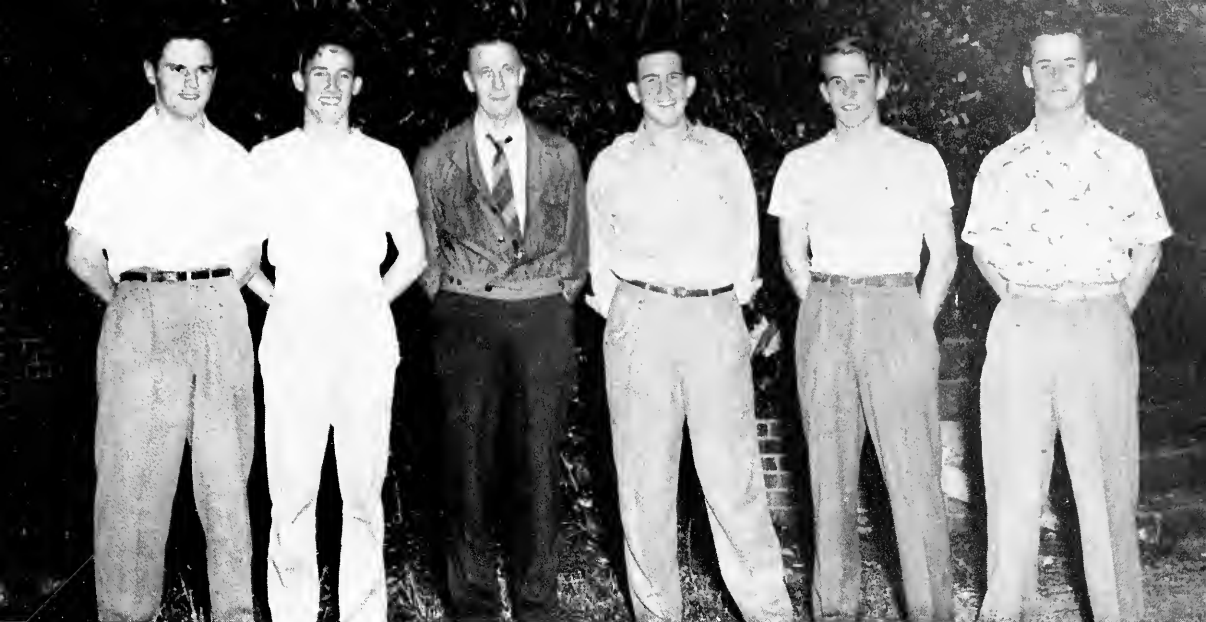

Men's Athletic Department

The Men's Athletic Department really came back into its own this year with the return of men to the campus. The department was increased to take care of the large number of men, and many new sports were added.

Football was the main interest in men's athletics this year and Stetson made a very good showing for the first year of active intercollegiate football since before the war.

Intramural Managers

The men's intramural managers and the organizations they represent are Tommy Deen, Pi Kappa Phi; Joe Davies, Sigma Nu; Fred Geronamos, Delta Sigma Phi; Philip Taylor, the Ministers; John Groover, Town House; Jake Alexander, B.O.Q.; Marshall Lane, Stray Creeks; Kermit Beman, Independents. George McMullen is in charge of minor sports, and Jack Fountain is in charge of major sports.

The "S" Club

Since it was founded in 1936, the "S" Club has had as its purpose the development of sportsmanship and the promotion of athletic achievement in the University.

Membership is restricted to men winning varsity letters, and all of these men are devoted to the high scholastic and athletic ideals of their organization.

Hatters

The Stetson Hatters entered the realm of intercollegiate football this year for the first time since the university discontinued it in 1940. When the opening call for fall practice was sounded in mid-September, Coach Brady Cowell had nearly seventy men on hand. However, because of the lack of equipment, Coach Cowell found it necessary to reduce his squad to thirty-nine men before regular season began.

The boys worked hard getting in shape for the opening game for which they only had three weeks to prepare. Coaches Cowell and Ben Clemmons had to start from scratch, for only three men were returning to the Hatter gridiron from previous years — Letterman Charles Wilson, quarterback; Joe Jacobs, quarterback, and Gordon Parker, end. Practically all of the men were returning war veterans attending college for the first time. But it wasn't long before plenty of competition spirit was worked up as they all looked anxiously for Stetson's first post-war games.

The "Big Hatters" made a creditable showing in every game, winning three and losing four.

George Washington slept here

It isn't the fact that it's Mt. Vernon that brings visitors, year after year, it's because of the name associated with it—a name that ties in with history. George Washington.

Folks put a lot of meaning into a name like that. You might say the same about trademarks and trade names, too. People find a lot of meaning in a familiar name like Stetson, whether they see it on a hat in a store in Seattle or in a shop in Dallas.

That's why you'll find it profitable to feature well-known trademarks and trade names. You'll find they help a customer to shop more quickly—and to buy with confidence.

22 Years' Attendance . . . and Still no Diploma

That may not indicate a very high I. Q. for your electrical servant, 'cause Reddy Kilowatt has been present for 22 graduations and he still has no diploma.

But, frankly, he doesn't want one . . . he'd rather go on attending school year after year . . . learning more . . . and furnishing the electrical needs of the University and its students.

FLORIDA POWER CORPORATION

JOHN G. GRAYLEE, District Manager

The background of the entire page is a dramatic, high-contrast black and white illustration. It depicts a vast, cloudy sky. In the lower portion, there are dark silhouettes of a man and a woman holding hands, standing on a horizon line. To their right is a silhouette of a tree, and further right is a building with a prominent dome. The overall mood is romantic and sophisticated.
